Wanted for Attempt Luring 008th District (Chicago Lawn)

About the Crime:

On Monday, May 22, 2017, at approximately 3:25 p.m. in the 2500 block of W. 59th St., an unknown offender attempted to lure a 12yr old female. The victim had just been dismissed from Morrill School located at 6011 S Rockwell and was walking to an ex-neighbor's house located in the 5800 block of S. Artesian, when the offender approached her on the sidewalk and stated "You are cute. Do you want to go to the store and buy something." The victim continued past the offender, to the neighbor's house and knocked on the door for several minutes, but nobody was home. The victim, who was standing on the porch, noticed the same offender standing on the corner of 58th St and Artesian watching her. Offender fled in an unknown direction.
