Court: Juvenile Court – 1100 S. Hamilton – March 7, 2021

Narrative: The above individuals were identified as the offenders who on March 6, 2021 at 9:51 a.m., pulled a 58-year-old woman out of her Hyundai Tucson in the 5400 block of W. 64th St. (8th District) and threatened to shoot her before taking her vehicle. The Area One Vehicular Hijacking Team later located the vehicle in the 6000 block of S. Martin Luther King Drive and placed one offender into custody at approximately 11:32 a.m. after they were both observed exiting the car. The other offender got back in the stolen vehicle and drove away but the same team located the car later with assistance from the police helicopter in the 4200 block of W. Marquette. The second offender was then placed into custody at approximately 7:46 p.m. and both offenders were charged accordingly. No additional information is available at this time.
