Wanted for Leaving the Scene of a
Fatal Traffic Crash
011th District

About the Crime:

On Tuesday, August 2, 2022 at about 9:30 p.m., a pedestrian was struck by a 4-door sedan, silver in color, in the 4000 W. block of Fifth Avenue. The pedestrian suffered fatal injuries. The vehicle failed to stop at the scene to render aid and exchange information. Per witnesses and evidence on the scene, the striking vehicle is a silver in color 2007-2012 Toyota Camry. The striking vehicle continued to travel south bound on Pulaski Road with damage visible on the right front area of the vehicle, which includes extensive damage to the passenger side of the windshield. The Chicago Police Department needs the help from the community to solve this Hit and Run. The following are actual photos of the wanted vehicle:
