

NEWS RELEASE

Chicago Police Department

Garry F. McCarthy
Superintendent

Marty Maloney
Director

For Immediate Release
December 10, 2014

Contact: Office of News Affairs
312-745-6110

Detectives Ask for Help in Identifying Owners of Stolen Property

Items Believed to be Taken in Burglaries Committed in the 19th and 20th Districts, Between March and November 2014

CHICAGO – During a recent investigation into a string of burglaries committed in the 19th (Town Hall) and 20th (Lincoln) Districts, Chicago Police recovered numerous unclaimed items, all believed to be stolen, including cameras, laptops and jewelry.

The investigation resulted in the arrest of two offenders, both of which were charged for multiple burglaries. Daunta Head was charged with four felony counts of Burglary-Residential, one felony count of Burglary and three felony counts of Theft. Patrice Banks was charged with three felony counts of Theft and one misdemeanor count of Theft. Head appeared in Central Bond Court on November 14, 2014. Banks appeared in Central Bond Court on November 21, 2014.

On Friday, December 5th, 2014, Area North Detectives invited the public to view, identify, and claim their stolen property. However, the below listed items remain unclaimed and Area North detectives continue to seek their rightful owners.

- Google Chrome Book – Serial # 3A16004554
- Apple Mac Book – Serial # W8827KHW0P1
- Apple Mac Book Pro – Serial # W88507YP1G0
- Apple Mac Book Pro – Serial # W803800RGQL
- Apple Mac Book – Serial # W88310P50P5
- Fuji Film 16 Mega Pixel Camera – Serial # 2TB99944
- Apple 8gb Ipad – Serial # PC926KZL201

Anyone who has been the victim of a burglary in the above mentioned area, and believes that any of these items may be theirs, is encouraged to contact the Bureau of Detectives – Area North Property Crimes at (312) 744-8263. Please be advised that all persons wishing to claim any of the listed stolen items must be able to provide proof of purchase or ownership.

###