

Bureau of Detectives – Area North

Community Alert

Wanted for Burglary/Credit Card Fraud 19th District (Town Hall)

About the crime:

On April 1, 2015, two female subjects entered Audubon School, located at 3500 N. Hoyne Ave., under the pretense of enrolling a child. These two subjects were able to gain access to two teachers' classrooms and take their wallets. The subjects proceeded to a Jewel grocery store located at 2940 N. Ashland and purchased $145 worth of items. The subjects continued their shopping spree with these stolen cards at other locations.

Offender's description:

The subjects were seen driving a newer model Ford Explorer. The photo provided shows one of the subjects and can be described as:

- #1 (shown) - Female black, dark complexion, long hair, wearing glasses and a blue baseball cap; 5'07"-5'10", 200-220 lbs.
- #2 (not shown) – Female black, medium complexion, short hair, wearing white pants, white shirt, and black sweater; 5'06"-5'08", medium build.

What you can do:

- Do not approach anyone you suspect of having participated in this crime.
- Anyone with information that might lead to the identity of these subjects is asked to contact the Area North Detectives Division – Detective Robert Ross at (312)744-8263.

Contact the Bureau of Detectives – Area North

(312) 744-8263

HY-209352, HY-206752