About This Crime:

On November 6, 2015, at approximately 8:20 a.m., a 13-year-old female was walking on the 4000 block of W. Adams when an unknown offender exited a vehicle and approached the victim on foot. The offender then grabbed the victim by her left arm at which time she was able to free herself from his grasp and run to safety. The offender fled in an unknown direction.

About The Offender:

- The offender was described as a male black, in his late 30's, 5'10-5'11 ft, dark complexion, and a full black beard with some gray.
- The offender was wearing a red hooded sweatshirt and blue jean pants.

About The Vehicle:

- Later model sedan, either black or blue in color, with brown in color damage on the driver side door

What You Can Do:

- Be aware of this situation and alert your neighbors.
- Call 911 to report any suspicious persons or activity in your neighborhood.
- Do not let children walk alone. Identify safe havens along your child's route to school, such as businesses or trusted neighbors.
- Find out how to start a parent Patrol or Walking School Bus Program at your child's school. Call the CAPS implementation Office at 312-747-9987 for more information on this and other safety programs.
