Preliminary Statement on shooting involving Off-Duty P.O. – 2500 block of N. Lowell

CHICAGO – On January 2, 2017, at approximately 9:30 a.m., an off-duty Officer assigned to the Mass Transit Unit was involved in an altercation with a male known to him in front of a residence on the 2500 block of N. Lowell. The incident escalated, resulting in the off-duty officer discharging his weapon, striking the male multiple times. The male was transported to an area hospital where he was pronounced.

The investigation remains on-going between both the Chicago Police Department and the Independent Police Review Authority.
