Court: Central Bond Court, 2600 S. California Ave. – October 23, 2017

Narrative: On October 22, 2017 at approximately 1:41 p.m., a police officer assigned to the Area South Gun Team observed a group of males on the street at the 8800 block of S. Wallace. When the officer approached the offender for an interview, the offender fled east. The officer pursued and caught the offender when a struggle ensued. Harrison removed a revolver from his pants pocket and put it to the chest of the officer. The officer overpowered the offender and gained possession of the gun. The offender then removed a second gun from his pocket and the officer wrestled it away. The fight continued as the offender then attempted to disarm the officer by pulling on his holstered duty-weapon. Additional units arrived and placed the offender into custody. The officer was taken to Christ Hospital in stable condition. The offender was treated and released from South Shore Hospital. No further information is available at this time.
