

NEWS RELEASE

Chicago Police Department

Charlie Beck
Interim Superintendent

Anthony Guglielmi
Chief Communications Officer

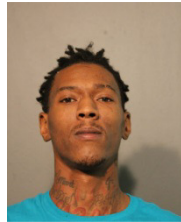

For Immediate Release
February 2, 2020

Contact: Office of Communications
312-745-6110

Four Offenders Charged with Felony Aggravated Battery of a Police Officer and Felony Resisting Obstructing Police

James Holmes, 25

Lamont Clay, 27

Martrell Williams, 22

Alexander Raeland, 41

Offender #1: James Holmes, 25 – 0-100 block of North Menard Avenue, Chicago, Illinois
One (1) felony count – Aggravated Battery of a Police Officer
Three (3) misdemeanor counts – Resisting / Obstructing Police Officer

Offender #2: Lamont Clay, 27 – 1600 block of South Spaulding Avenue, Chicago, Illinois
One (1) felony count – Resisting / Obstructing Police Officer
One (1) misdemeanor count – Disorderly Conduct

Offender #3: Martrell Williams, 22 – 1300 block of West Hastings Street, Chicago, Illinois
One (1) felony count – Aggravated Battery of a Police Officer

Offender #4: Alexander Raeland, 41 – 4900 block of South Laflin Street, Chicago Illinois
One (1) felony count – Aggravated Battery of a Police Officer

Court: Central Bond Court, 2600 South California Ave. – February 2, 2020

Narrative: All four (4) offenders were placed into custody on the 1200 block of North Milwaukee Avenue on February 1, 2020 just after 2 a.m. Police received information about a building where between 100-150 people were gathered, including dozens of individuals who were displaying multiple guns, live on social media. Officers formulated a plan and made entry into the building where individuals streamed out of the building, pushing and fighting Police, discarding weapons as they fled. During the quagmire, the above four subjects were placed into custody. A systematic search of the building yielded a total of 24 handguns and one semi-automatic, short barrel rifle. All four subjects are convicted felons and will appear today in Central Bond Court. No further information is available at this time.

###